A French Jewellery Casket

Of square form, constructed in cast and chased bronze, rising on toupie feet; the top and sides having champlevé decoration, and Limoges style enamelled polychrome and iridescent panels of young maids, one initialled 'L.C' (qv); opening to reveal a material lined interior.

French, Circa 1910

Literature:

'L.C' are the initials of the noted Limoges enameller Louis Clement (1882-1977) who provided works on copper for jewellery, and small decorative items.
