A PIER GLASS OF SUBSTANTIAL SIZE OF THE PERIODO NAPOLEONICO

H: 69.5 in / 177 cm | W: 62 in / 157 cm

Of rectangular form, the frame housing the mirror plate finished in ivory paintwork, with gilt and burnished gilt highlights; the everted cornice decorated with egg and dart mouldings, with a pediment above; the flanking shaped columns dressed with an overlapping stiff leaf decoration, and cannellure mouldings; the inner reserve with typical anthemions and Grecian interlacing, and with a running thorn pattern. Italian, Circa 1810
