XVIII-XIX CENTURY
FURNITURE & DECORATIVE ARTS

Constructed in finely figured satinwood and mahogany of great depth of colour, with polychrome hand painted decoration in the style of Angelica Kauffman and Pergolesi; of arc-en-arbalette form, rising from tapering square section legs, the central bowed door having a shield of satinwood framed within a mahogany border and centred with a roundel after Kauffman, with floral highlights; the flanking side doors having conforming shields, and central cartouches depicting attributes of music; over, three drawers having starburst handles, with quadrant mouldings, the guard band on the platform has a running foliate motif. Circa 1890.
