BUTCHOFF

XVIII-XIX CENTURY FURNITURE & DECORATIVE ARTS

Constructed in a well patinated San Domingo mahogany: of rectangular form, rising from a plinth base, the pedestals with laterally opposed banks of four oak lined lockable drawers, fitted with internal dividers, and dressed with swan neck brass handles; three drawers of similar construction to each side of the frieze, itself having brass retaining pegs; the top having an inset tooled leather writing surface. Circa 1780
