

AN ORMOLU AND PORCELAIN MANTLE CLOCK
RETAILED BY E&S WATSON OF LONDON

Dimensions: H: 21.5 in / 55 cm | W: 14 in / 36 cm | D: 7 in / 18 cm

8115

Butchoff Antiques, 154 Kensington Church Street, London, W8 4BN
T: 00 44 (0) 20 7221 8174 info@butchoff.com www.butchoff.com

A Mantlepiece Clock in the Louis XVI Manner Retailed by E & S Watson of London

Constructed in a fine quality two tone ormolu case, and adorned with rose ground 'Sèvres' style panels to both front and sides, depicting; rising from oblate toupie feet, the domed case is of modest breakfront form, with a flambeaux urn atop, having tea rose garlands conjoining the body; the clock face delineates the hours in Roman numerals in white cartouches, and is driven by an eight day movement, striking on a bell, with the backplate having the retailer's stamp, 'E & S Watson, London', within an ellipse. Circa 1880

Literature:

Reference; Brian Loomes 'Watchmakers & Clockmakers of the World' (Successor to the late G.H.Baillie's groundbreaking book of the same title)