

BUTCHOFF

EXCELLENCE IN ANTIQUES

Est.1964

A KINGWOOD OCCASIONAL TABLE IN THE EARLY LOUIS XV MANNER

H: 30 in / 76 cm | W: 20 in / 52 cm | D: 17 in / 43 cm

Constructed in kingwood, and dressed with fine quality bronze ormolu mounts; rising from swept cabriole legs adorned with ormolu 'animal paw' feet, with ormolu masks of the God Pan at the shoulders; the body houses a single oak lined lockable drawer (the original key present), the keyhole sporting an ormolu mask of a grinning Bacchus; the top of square serpentine form, lined with gilt tooled green leather.

French, Circa 1870

