

BUTCHOFF

EXCELLENCE IN ANTIQUES

Est.1964

A REGENCY SIDE CABINET ATTRIBUTED TO GILLOWS

H: 37.5 in / 95 cm | W: 62.5 in / 158 cm | D: 19 in / 47 cm

A fine regency side cabinet

Attributed to Gillows of Lancaster & London

Constructed from richly coloured mahogany, the breakfront cabinet rising from turned bun feet, supporting the central cupboard opening to reveal an arrangement of sixteen brass-handled drawers, and flanked by a further pair of panelled cupboards revealing stacked sliding trays, the doors interspersed with finely carved pilasters terminating in volutes and paterae along the freeze; the whole surmounted by a pierced ormolu three-quarter gallery.

Circa 1820

