

BUTCHOFF

EXCELLENCE IN ANTIQUES

Est.1964

A PAIR OF REGENCY PERIOD BERGÈRES ATTRIBUTED TO GILLOWS

H: 34 in / 86 cm | W: 29 in / 74 cm | D: 31 in / 79 cm

A Generous Pair of Regency Period Bergères

Attributed to Gillows of London & Lancaster

The frames of solid carved mahogany, the chairs supported on castor-shod turned, tapering and reeded legs; the upholstered green leather seats with sweeping back supports and scrolling armrests with fluted carved supports of conforming shape.

Circa 1820

Literature:

A documented pair of chairs bearing distinct stylistic and formal characteristics to the present bergères have been traced to the famous firm of Gillow & Co, bearing the makers' stamps of Gillow craftsmen, sold Christies May 2019.

