Alabaster Bust of an Elegant Lady
By Giovanni Pinotti Cipriani

The alabaster bust supported on a circular socle, modelled as a lady wearing a fashionable hat adorned with flowers. Signed "G. Cipriani."
Franco-Italian, circa 1905

Literature:

Adolfo Cipriani (1857-1941)

Adolfo Cipriani, also known as Ada, was an Italian sculptor born in Florence, active from c.1880-1930, and known for his marble and alabaster works aimed at the international market. Working at the turn of the century, his allegorical and portrait figures are in the Art Nouveau style.
