A Finely Carved Alabaster Figural Lamp
in the Egyptian Revival Style

Crafted in luminous alabaster, the table lamp embodying the Egyptian Revival style, modelled as a seated figure of a pharaonic woman, gracefully reclined on a recumbent leopard, the flowing drapery of her attire carefully carved, while the soft glow emanating from the illuminated plinth casts a warm, ambient light, enhancing the statue's qualities. The sculpture is supported on a tiered alabaster base with subtle veining.
