An Exceptional Lacquer-Mounted Side Cabinet In the Antiquarian Taste

Possibly Supplied by Baldock

The original marble top with thumbnail moulded edge, above the breakfront cabinet rising from tapering feet shod with acanthus cast sabots, the apron centred by a bearded mask, the sides and tripartite front all housing earlier coromandel lacquer panels dating to the 18th century within stiff leaf ormolu framework, the frieze with ormolu acanthus mounts and a central scrolling foliate mount. The locks marked Comyn Ching & Co.

English, Circa 1845
