A William IV Period Parcel Gilt Burr Elm Centre Table
Attributed to Thomas & George Seddon

The circular table veneered throughout with finely figured burr elm and relieved with parcel gilding throughout, the top with a tilting mechanism and a gilded band to the edge, supported on a central column carved with water leaf ornament and a tripartite plinth support with conforming parcel gilding and carved acanthus oblate bun feet with hidden castors.
English, circa 1830

This table belongs to a small number of related examples attributed to the famous cabinetmaker Seddon and his contemporaries such as William Riddle. The Rothschild family owned a similar table at their Mentmore Towers residence.
