

AN UNUSUAL GEORGE II PERIOD PAIR OF SADDLE-SHAPED STOOLS

Dimensions: H: 16.5 in / 42 cm | W: 15 in / 38 cm | D: 19 in / 48 cm

10307

An Unusual George II Period Pair of Saddle-Shaped Stools

The George II period tear-drop shaped stools made from mahogany, the red leather upholstered seats supported on three turned and tapering legs with pad feet.

English, circa 1750

Saddle-shaped stools are rare to come to the market, a later 19th century pair with plain mahogany seats was with Mallett in London in 2008.