A Louis XVI Style Ormolu-Mounted Table
By Edmond Kahn of London & Paris

After the model by Adam Weisweiler for Marie-Antoinette's bedroom at Château de Saint Cloud

Surmounted by the original inset fleur-de-pêcher marble top, the table dressed with mercury gilt bronze mounts, supported on ormolu legs with female caryatids terminating in toupie feet and joined by an interlaced stretcher bearing a gilt bronze basket, the frieze set with ormolu floral garlands, a central breakfront panel opening to reveal an oak-lined drawer. The reverse of the bronzes marked 'E. Kahn.'
French, circa 1895
