A Superb Looking Glass

In the manner of Thomas Chippendale

The oval mercury glass plate housed within an ornate rococo carved and pierced giltwood frame, composed of 'C' scrolls, flowering branchwork, and stylised acanthus leaves.

English, Circa 1880

The design for this mirror is derived from the original drawing by Thomas Chippendale in his The Gentleman & Cabinetmaker's Director of 1762 (3rd ed.), on Plate CLXVIII, as "Oval Glass Frames."
