A Superb 149-Piece Silver Service
In the Georgian Manner
By Garrard & Co

The Garrard firm was Crown Jeweller between 1843 and 2007 and was responsible for making to Royal regalia, including the preparing of the Crown Jewels for the coronations of every monarch since King Edward VII. Garrard & Co have dealt with many famous jewels, creating such pieces as the Imperial Crown of India, as well as Queen Elizabeth's Crown set with the legendary Koh-i-Noor diamond.

This extensive set of feather edge Old English cutlery by one of England's finest silversmiths has a timeless quality, housed in their custom-fitted mahogany knife urns with crossbanding and boxwood stringing, on mahogany pedestals of conforming design. All pieces hallmarked sterling with the Garrard & Co trefoil.
