

A SUPERB PAIR OF PORPHYRY TOP ROCOCO CONSOLE TABLES IN THE LOUIS XV STYLE

Dimensions: 34 in / 86.5 cm | W: 39.5 in / 100 cm | D: 19.5 in / 49.5 cm

10445

A Superb Pair of Porphyry Top Rococo Console Tables
In the Louis XV Style

Each console table surmounted by a striking serpentine porphyry top with moulded edges, the tables of carved giltwood designed in the exuberant 'rocaille' style incorporating shell motifs, stylised foliage and floral sprays, the scrolled legs joined by a stretcher centred with a carved open pomegranate.

French, circa 1880

Literature:

Comparative Literature:

Mestdagh, Camille, and Pierre Lécoules. L'ameublement d'art français 1850-1900. Paris: Éd. de l'Amateur, 2010, p.19, illustrating a related console table by Beurdeley.

Pallot, Bill G. B. The Art of the Chair in Eighteenth-Century France. ACR-Gismondi, 1989, p. 118, illustrating related seating furniture by the Cresson dynasty.