Royer-Bulliod & Cie of Lyon

Established in 1797, Royer-Bulliod was an important retailer of crystal, faïences and fine porcelain in the city of Lyon.

Volkstedt of Rudolstadt, Thuringia

The first porcelain factory in Thuringia, established by Georg Heinrich Macheleid in Rudolstadt, Thuringia, Germany, after receiving permission from Prince Johann Friedrich von Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt. Founded in 1762, Volkstedt quickly earned a reputation for quality that rivaled Meissen. By the end of the 18th century, the factory became known for its porcelain figures. It still exists under the name Älteste Volkstedter Porzellanmanufaktur.
