

THE PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF WALES'S SCREEN
FROM SANDRINGHAM

Dimensions: H: 74.5 in / 189 cm | W: 85 in / 216 cm

10451

Butchoff Antiques, 154 Kensington Church Street, London, W8 4BN
T: 00 44 (0) 20 7221 8174 info@butchoff.com www.butchoff.com

The Prince and Princess of Wales's Screen
From the Royal Nursery at Sandringham

The triple-fold screen made of oak and parcel gilded, each panel surmounted by a carved giltwood cresting of the Prince of Wales feathers, the crown and the motto 'Ich Dien,' both sides of the screen decorated with a plethora of historical postcards including themes of childhood, Christmas, friendship, fidelity and love. The central panel bearing a brass plaque reading 'Presented to Their Royal Highnesses / The Prince & Princess of Wales / For the Royal Nursery / By Mrs Carr, Widow of Dr Carr / of Blackheath Dec 1901.
English, circa 1895

Literature:

Literature:

Christopher Hussey, 'Fort Belvedere, Surrey-II; The Residence of the Hon. Gerald Lascelles,' Country

Life, 26 November 1959, p. 963 (illus. fig. 9), showing the screen.