An Exceptional Neoclassical Side Cabinet

By Wright & Mansfield

A wonderful cabinet of refined slight breakfront proportions made using the finest available materials including lustrous satinwood, with tulipwood crossbanding, boxwood stringing and marquetry inlays of sycamore, harewood and a variety of specimen woods, the stepped top with a three-quarter pierced brass gallery, flanked by radiused corners inlaid with floral neoclassical marquetry within a gilt brass surround; an exquisite running frieze of pierced ormolu anthemions suspended from ribbon-tied garlands and cascading bellflowers running the length of the cabinet, interspersed by marquetry lidded urns atop the tapering pilasters with carved leaves, rosettes, and marquetry. The straight front of the cabinet of tripartite design with a central glazed door with fitted shelf, flanking a pair of doors with painted medallions representing Peace & Plenty within gilt surrounds and marquetry ribbon-tied neoclassical bellflowers with fan-shaped design in the quadrants; the rounded glazed sides with fitted shelves; supported on reeded tapering legs.
